This Member Badge Holder Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement") is entered into between the undersigned member (hereinafter referred to as the "Member") and the New York State Law Enforcement & Community Council (hereinafter referred to as "NYSLECC"). NYSLECC Shields must be renewed every year along with membership.

1. Membership ID & Badge Ownership: The Member acknowledges that the NYSLECC-issued personal identification ID and badge (hereinafter referred to as the "Badge") is the property of NYSLECC and shall remain so at all times. The Member understands that the Badge is being issued solely for the purpose of membership identification. Members cannot sell or rent any property of NYSLECC.

2. Ownership and Legal Action: The Member acknowledges that the Badge is the property of the New York State Law Enforcement & Community Council (NYSLECC). If the Member fails to return the Badge upon revocation, suspension, termination of volunteer service, or upon demand of the organization, NYSLECC reserves the right to pursue legal action against the Member to recover the Badge and seek any associated damages.

3. Receipt of Returned Badge: The Member acknowledges that upon returning the Badge, a receipt will be issued by a NYSLECC organization representative, confirming the return of the Badge.

4. Special Privileges and Responsibilities: The Member understands and agrees that the Badge does not grant any special privileges under the law and does not identify the Member as a Police Officer. The Member accepts full responsibility for any violations of rules and regulations associated with the possession and use of the Badge. Any law enforcement officer has the right to confiscate the Member ID and Badge if these rules are violated.

5. Lost or Stolen Badge: In the event that the Badge is lost or stolen, the Member agrees to immediately report such loss or theft to the NYSLECC Badging Office and their immediate supervisor.
